Jesus says:

From this stone God makes people.

Luke 3:8 and Matthew 3:9 For I tell you, God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.

Note: This document was fully translated using Google Translate. Therefore, all Bible texts are not taken from existing English Bibles, but rather translated from various Dutch Bibles.

My command of English is so poor that I'm grateful for the resources available. So if there are any "strange" translations, Google might have mistranslated them.

I was born on April 27, 1956. I didn't have much education because I had to start working at 18 and didn't have a diploma. My first diploma, at 19, was my driver's license. From November 1976 to December 1977, I completed my military service, and on February 2, 1978, I married my current, beautiful, and sweet wife.

A completely different view, it is written: Test all things and hold fast to what is good.

Daniel also searched the books, not to form his own opinion, but to find the truth.

Daniel 9:2 In the first year of his reign it was clear to me Daniel by the books the number of the years that the word of the LORD had spoken to Jeremiah the prophet, concerning the fulfilling of the time for the desolations of Jerusalem, was seventy years.

Daniel 12:4 Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

Jeremiah 25:10-14 Israel and its neighbors will be subject to the king of Babylon (synonym for Satan) for seventy years. Then, when the seventy years of slavery are completed, I will punish the king of Babylon and his people for their sins.

Genesis 6:3 EBV24 And the LORD said, My spirit shall not abide in man forever; for because of his iniquity he is flesh, and his days shall be a hundred and twenty years.

I also research the books, so I don't limit myself to the Bible. The apocryphal writings are also among the books. Unfortunately, all books have been rewritten by humans. Enoch already warned about this; you can read about it further on in this little booklet, on page 4.

If you approach God in the right way—honestly and sincerely, without outward show—He will reveal all things to you, as written in Matthew 7:7-8: Ask*, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened. *Asking must be done in the right way; that rarely happens.

GOD & JESUS.

Many people say that God is all-powerful. Saying, believing, and acknowledging are different things. The first fact we can say about God is: He is invisible. Therefore, He is a Spirit, even a Holy Spirit.

Nothing is impossible for God; He cannot be limited in His power or possibilities. God was and is the First of all that has come into being. Many people try to limit God in His omnipotence, because, according to them, the Bible is the only infallible word of God.

Living endlessly with only "objects" without free will and therefore without intelligence is not an option. It is precisely through intelligence and the associated free will that life becomes a life worth living, provided this life is linked to boundless love.

God began by creating, and the first being He created was given many possibilities. Yet, those possibilities were somewhat limited, because God already foresaw what would happen in the future. Free will can also go wrong.

It was precisely God's invisibility that created a problem, because everyone was visible except God. Many creatures saw the "Morning Star" as their first father, because he was visible. This gradually caused the Morning Star to become arrogant. For many, Lucifer was also the first father, because he, and others, had been given the power to create.

God, who is love, precisely because He foresaw the future, has always ensured that He could intervene at any time. No one will ever be able to overcome Him. Spiritual beings had free will and the intelligence to choose the right things. Free will was, is, and remains inviolable.

The apostasy from God was a conscious "turning away from Him," which in turn requires a "conscious turning to Him" in order to re-enter that original relationship with God. Millions of years will pass, but every fallen angel will consciously turn to Him again, completely of their own free will.

WHO IS JESUS?

In short: Jesus is the visible image of the invisible God, and there is no third entity.

- Colossians 1:15 He – Jesus – is the (visible) image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.2
- Korinthe 4:4
- 2 Corinthians 4:4 The god of this world has blinded the minds of those who do not believe, lest the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine on them.
- Romans 9:5 Of whom are the fathers, and of whom according to the flesh came Christ, who is over all God, blessed for ever.

A little food for thought.

Every organism dies, but the thing that makes up an organism never dies.

An atom keeps moving; that's only possible if there's life within it — eternally.

THE SCRIPTURES.

The first writing is the Book of Enoch. Enoch learned to write from the angels. There are quite a few apocryphal writings, all of which are labeled false by theologians.

On my Dutch website www.hetplanvangod.nl, you'll find several apocryphal writings in English on this downloads page; all of these apocryphal writings can be downloaded for free. These are the apocryphal writings that are primarily used on my website. Therefore, they are the most important apocryphal writings.

The importance of the apocryphal writings is immense, because you must search for the truth. The connections between the writings are important. This search goes beyond simply reading. With the Book of Jashers, you also have to investigate what might have happened to this book in the past.

Book of Enoch, Chapter 21, ENOCH'S MESSAGE OF GUIDANCE

104.10 And now I know this mystery: that many sinners will change and distort the words of truth and speak evil words, and lie, and concoct great fables, and write books in their own words. 104.11 But if they write down my words in their languages accurately, and do not change anything or leave anything out of my words, but write down everything accurately, everything that I testified of the past, then I know another mystery: 104.12 That books will be given to the righteous and wise, and will become a source of joy and truth and much wisdom. 104.13 And books will be given to them, and they will believe in them and rejoice in them, and all the righteous who have learned therein all the ways of truth will be glad.

BOOK OF JASHER

The probable history of this book: During the Council of Nicaea (325 AD), many writings were banned, even under penalty of death. All these writings were burned, including the Book of Jashers. The Bible still refers to this writing: Joshua 10:13 and 2 Samuel 1:18.

Research has revealed that chapters 70 through 78 have been incorrectly rewritten, and the lamentations referred to in Samuel 1:18 have disappeared entirely. Chapters 70 through 78 concern the life of Moses, and it is written that Moses killed the Egyptian when he was 18 years old. The Bible shows that Moses' life can be divided into three equal parts—Acts 7:23-30—and that this event occurred when Moses was 40 years old.

The remaining chapters complement the Bible; you can read about this on the "Biblical Chronology" page in this booklet, in Dutch. This "Biblical Chronology" is fully developed and available as a free download in English on THIS website page.

THE BIBLE

The Bible is demonstrably incomplete and manipulated; it also contains errors of interpretation and translation. Many people believe the Bible is the infallible word of God. God is infallible, but the Bible is not. People are constantly revising these books.

The concept of "REALM OF THE DEAD" is not understood, which is why the HSV was created. The word "REALM OF THE DEAD" has completely disappeared from this Bible version. A new version of the HTB Bible is available for installation in the YouVersion app. It was released on November 1, 2025. Note: The HSV and the HTB are both Dutch-language Bibles.

The Bible is being adapted to make it "understandable" for people. However, one should not adapt the Bible; one must seek the truth in all books, including the so-called apocryphal writings.

It's absolutely possible to make a list of all the errors in the Bible. Errors due to manipulation, translation errors, and interpretation errors. One question: How long was Israel in Egypt? 430 years, 400 years, or...?

GENERAL VIEW OF THEOLOGISTS AND SCIENTISTS.

The origin of the earth is a much-debated topic. The generally accepted Christian view differs significantly from the scientific view. We also see that many theologians are influenced by science, and many scientists are influenced by theology. The opinions of many theologians and many scientists differ widely, but the basis stated below remains.

- General view of theologians: the earth is 6,000 to 10,000 years old, based on genealogical records.
- General scientific view: The Earth is about 4½ billion years old, based on radio dating.

To determine an age or a distance, a starting point and an end point are needed. The genealogies of theologians, who focus exclusively on the incomplete Bible, are incomplete. The theologians' starting point: the Fall of Man is approximately the date of Creation. Theologians also argue that the origin of the earth, and even the origin of the universe, is linked to the Fall of Adam and Eve.

Science also has no starting point, and radio dating is demonstrably nonsense.

The list below shows a location, the rock's formation year, and the radioactive dating. However, this radioactive dating should be the same as the formation year. This radioactive dating was performed by scientists. Source: Dutch book: What about the age of the Earth? The author of this book is a chemical engineer and more or less grew up with the scientific theory of evolution. Nowadays, he no longer believes in the theory of evolution, but he does believe in an Earth no older than 10,000 years.

Location.	Formation Year.	Radio Dating Age.
Etna, Sicily.	122 B.C.	250,000 years
Sunset Crater,	1064–1065	250,000 years
Hualalai, Hawaii.	1800–1801	1.6–22.8 million years
Lassen, California.	1915	110,000 years
Kilauea Iki, Hawaii.	1959	8.5 million years
Stromboli, Italy.	1963	2.4 million years
Etna, Sicily.	1964	700,000 years
Etna, Sicily.	1972	350,000 years
Mount St. Helens, Washington	1980–1986	340,000–2.8 million years
Erebus, Antarctica.	1984	640,000 years

The only correct conclusion is that radio dating is an unrealistic measurement. We can therefore conclude that the Earth is much younger than 4.5 billion years.

Erebus, Antarctica: 41 years or 640,000 years is quite a difference. It's inexplicable.

You see, even though the lava flows formed only tens or hundreds of years ago, according to radioactive dating methods, that rock is still hundreds of thousands or millions of years old. This leads to the following, crucial question: If you can't trust radioactive dating for rocks whose age is known, why should you trust it for rocks whose age is unknown? The assumptions and results of radioactive dating are demonstrably incorrect. It therefore seems that radioactive dating can be considered dated. See this Dutch website for source references.

In Genesis 1:1, Moses says, "God created heaven and earth."

The words "heaven" and "earth" can also be interpreted differently. According to scientists, the universe is much older than the earth. When God created the universe, no mortal human was present: not Moses, not Adam, not a scientist, and not a theologian.

By "heaven and earth," Moses meant the ground he walked on, and by "heaven," he meant the blue sky from which the necessary water falls.

The moment of the Fall is a completely different moment than the creation of the earth. The Fall had already occurred in heaven.

The inscription "describes the military campaigns of his (Shalmaneser III's) reign until 853 BCE." The stele depicting Ashurnasirpal II is made of limestone with a rounded top. It is 193 centimeters high, 93 centimeters wide, and 27 centimeters deep.

In 853 BCE, two major battles took place: the Battle of Qarqar and the Battle of Ramoth-Gilead. At Qarqar, the Assyrians led by King Shalmaneser III fought against a coalition of eleven kings, including King Hadadezer (possibly Ben-Hadad II) of Aram-Damascus and King Ahab of Israel. According to the Bible, there was also a battle at Ramoth-Gilead around that time between the armies of Ahab of Israel and the king of Syria, in which Ahab was killed.

Battle of Qarqar: A battle between the Neo-Assyrian Empire and an allied army of eleven kings.

Battle of Ramoth-Gilead: A battle between the Israelite king Ahab and the king of Syria, which, according to the Bible, took place in the same year.

AGE OF THE EARTH ACCORDING TO THE SCRIPTURES.

A timeline can only be created based on multiple scriptures. God allows no one to limit Him. Wanting to limit God means that this person—or persons—is arrogant. The Bible is demonstrably incomplete and manipulated; it also contains interpretation and translation errors. This fact, too, is related to arrogance, because manipulating, misinterpreting, and translating according to one's own opinion is wanting to know better than God's servants.

To achieve a biblical calculation, we must use the apocryphal writings, in this case the Gospel of Nicodemus. We begin with the Bible.

THE JUBILEE YEAR / THE JUBILEE PERIOD.

A jubilee consists of 7 x 7 years. Many Christian preachers claim that a jubilee lasts 50 years; this is incorrect. The 50th year is the jubilee year; it is also the first year of the next jubilee, because the 8th and 9th years cannot be counted as part of the previous jubilee.

Leviticus 25:21-22: "Then I will command my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it will produce enough for three years, so that you may sow again in the eighth year and eat from the old produce until the ninth year." Until the new produce of the land comes in, you may eat from the old.

PAUL REFERS TO THE JUBILEE.

Ephesians 4:26 Be angry, and do not sin. Do not let the sun go down on your anger. The Jubilee is the year of forgiveness, as Paul indicates that you must forgive before a new day dawns. You see, the same is said for a Jubilee: forgive before a new period dawns. A Jubilee is the period of a divine day.

TWO BIBLE TEXTS REFER TO A DIVINE YEAR.

The Bible is not an easy book, because both Psalm 90:4 and 2 Peter 3:8 state: "One day with God is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like one day." So a divine year has 1,000 days. Converted to human years, this is: $49 \times 1,000 = 49,000$ years.

2 Peter 3:8 But remember this one thing, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like one day.

THE GOSPEL OF NICODEMUS.

The testimony of Adam and Seth: What would you like, Seth? Because of your father's illness, do you want the ointment that heals the sick, or the tree from which this ointment flows? It cannot be found now. Therefore, go and tell your father that after 5,500 years from the creation of the world, the only Son of God will come down to earth to become a man.

Based on these biblical data, the age of the earth can be calculated. Until the coming of Jesus, it is 5,500 divine years, so $5,500 \times 49,000 = 269,500,000$ years. We only need to add our current calendar year. The creation of the earth was 269,502,025 years ago.

The Fall of Adam and Eve probably occurred on Good Friday, 3895 years before the beginning of our era.

$3042 + 853 = 3895 + 2025 = 5920$ years ago.

WAR AND JUDGMENT.

The Bible is the primary focus of this chapter. John 1:5 says that the darkness did not comprehend it; this is the beginning of war in heaven. War arises from the desire to dominate, and discord arises. War arises from pride.

Where love reigns, there is no will to power, and where power reigns, love is absent.

Revelation 12:1-4A And a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars; and she was pregnant, and cried out in labor, and travailed in childbirth. And another sign appeared in heaven: Behold, a great fiery dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven diadems; and his tail drew a third of the stars of heaven and did cast them to the earth.

This text from Revelation tells of the origin of the community: the angels (the woman) created by God (the sun). The moon and stars represent the leaders of the community. God revealed Himself in the form of Jesus (the birth pangs) because He knew that Satan (the dragon) would become His adversary. A third of all the angels ultimately followed Satan into his fall.

Isaiah 14:9-15 “The grave beneath will be shaken because of you, to meet your coming. It will rouse for you the dead, all the rulers of the earth, and raise from their thrones all the kings of the nations. They will all speak and say to you, ‘You too have become weak as we are, and you have become like us!’ Your pride and the sound of your harps have been brought down to the grave. The maggots are spread out under you like a mattress, and worms are your covering. How are you fallen from heaven, you bright morning star, son of the dawn! How are you brought down to the ground, you who subdue the nations! You said in your heart, ‘I will ascend into heaven and exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will sit on the mount of assembly in the farthest north; I will ascend above the expanse of the clouds and be like the Most High. No, you will be brought down to the grave, to the lowest depths of the pit!

Ezekiel 28:14-18 You were the anointed cherub who covers; so I placed you there. You were on the holy mountain of God; you walked among the stones of fire. You were perfect in your ways from the day you were created, until iniquity was found in you. By the greatness of your trade, your bowels were filled with violence, and you sinned. Therefore I will cast you down from the mountain of God and destroy you, O cherub who covers, from the midst of the stones of fire. Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you have corrupted your wisdom by your fair appearance. I will cast you to the ground and expose you to the eyes of kings, so that they will look down on you. By the multitude of your iniquities and by the dishonest dealings you have defiled your sanctuaries. Therefore I will bring forth a fire from the midst of you, and it will devour you, and I will turn you to ashes on the earth in the sight of all who see you.

God has done everything possible—see Isaiah 43:25-27 below—to protect spiritual people from the fall: following Satan. Free will was and is inviolable. God even made Himself visible in the form of Jesus Christ. Many spiritual people, also called angels or gods, were very grateful for this and turned away from Satan. Ultimately, a third of the angels remained loyal to Satan. These were primarily those whose ancestor was Satan.

There was and is a hierarchy: leaders, priests, and followers. 2 Corinthians 4:4 speaks of those who are blinded, so that they do not believe. The redemption of the priests and leaders occurs during another age; see the last page. The group of followers is an innumerable multitude: Revelation 7:9.

Isaiah 43:25-27 I am the one who takes away your sins for my own sake and will never remember them again. And remind me of this promise of forgiveness, for we must one day judge your sins together. Plead your case, so that I may forgive you. From your father's day forward, your ancestors sinned against me. All your priests and leaders have broken my law.

THE JUDGMENT

As we read in Revelation 12:4A, a third of the angels continued to follow Satan. God convened a council, during which this third was sentenced to die as humans. The concept of "dying" was still unknown at the time.

Psalms 82:1, 6-7 GOD stands in the church of God. He judges among the gods. I have said, "You are gods, all of you are sons of the Most High!" Yet you will die like a man, die like every prince.

KJV: In order to die as a human, these "gods" first had to become mortal. Therefore, the fallen angels were cast INTO the earth.

All Dutch bible: In order to die as a human, these "gods" first had to become mortal. Therefore, the fallen angels were cast DOWN to earth.

Blueletterbible.org translated from source text into Dutch language correctly.

Revelation 12:9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast into (the innermost parts) of the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

The brown text section is inserted because I was surprised by "he was cast into the innermost parts of the earth." I entered this text into Google, and this is the answer from AI, complete with references to other Bible texts.

The phrase "cast into the innermost parts of the earth" is a biblical expression found in both the Old and New Testaments, most notably in Ephesians 4:9, referring to Christ's descent to the grave or the underworld after his crucifixion. This descent is presented as a necessary precursor to his ascension, signifying his humility and victory over death. The phrase is also used to describe the ultimate downfall of the wicked, or to poetically describe being in a secret place like the womb, as in Psalm 139:15, which states, "I was made in secret, when I was skillfully wrought in the lowest parts of the earth".

As it relates to Jesus Christ

- Descent before ascension: Ephesians 4:9 states, "Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?". The "lowest parts of the earth" are often interpreted as his time in the grave or the realm of the dead before his resurrection.
- Significance: This descent is seen as part of his mission of redemption, demonstrating his humility and authority over even the grave.

As it relates to the wicked

- Ultimate judgment: In other contexts, such as Isaiah 14:15, being "cast down to Sheol, to the lowest parts of the earth" describes the ultimate downfall and humiliation of the proud.

As it relates to a secret place

- Metaphor for the womb: In Psalm 139:15, the phrase "lowest parts of the earth" is used poetically to refer to the womb, describing the secret and mysterious way life is formed.
- God's omniscience: The verse uses this imagery to emphasize that God was present and knew the psalmist even before they were born, in the most hidden place of creation.

WHAT DO WE FIND AT THE EARTH'S INTERIOR?

A temperature of over 5000°C is present in the Earth's inner core, the core of the Earth itself. The temperature increases with depth, from about 900°C in the crust to 5000°C or more in the center. At this temperature, everything melts into an atom, but... an atom remains alive... forever, without end.

- Earth's crust: Temperature rises from about 0°C to 900°C.
- Earth's mantle: From about 900°C to 3000°C.
- Outer core: From about 3000°C to 5000°C.
- Inner core: The hottest shell, where the temperature rises to over 5000°C.

THE WHY QUESTION: WHY THE EARTH.

If God wanted to punish the fallen angels endlessly, why didn't He choose a planet far removed from everything and everyone? Why Earth, the "habitat" of mortal man?

Endless punishment has nothing to do with love, but with hatred and horror. Theologians say that God is love, but they turn God into a mass murderer. A third of the angels, according to theologians and all those who believe the Bible is infallible, are lost forever and ever. This group of people doesn't even believe what is written. They say there are no errors in the Bible, but then every single one of these people is lying.

John 142:3 KJV. In my Father's house there is room for many. If it were not so, I would have told you, for I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and take you to myself, that where I am you may be also.

Depending on the translation, it speaks of "for many" or "room," but most translations speak of "many mansions." Every star can be a mansion. In many of these "mansions," the situation will be completely different. Many mansions, like the earth, are a place to learn love: love your neighbor as yourself. Many people have lived on earth and lived lives of not good, but also not completely depraved. To put it simply: they lived in a gray area, in various shades of gray. In the kingdom of God, only one law prevails: love your neighbor as yourself, and that can only begin by loving God above all else.

The following texts testify to God's love. God will never let any creature perish forever and ever. Nor will He ever hinder free will. The following texts are divided into four categories.

1. Forgive unceasingly.
2. Everyone will be saved.
3. Everyone will be rewarded according to their deeds.
4. Every knee will bow.

FORGIVENESS UNCESSIBLY.

- Matthew 5:44 But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you.
- Matthew 5:46-47 For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Don't even the tax collectors do the same? The Dutch HTB Bible refers to deceivers instead of tax collectors.
- Matthew 18:21-22 Peter asked, "Lord, if one of my brothers and sisters wrongs me repeatedly, how many times should I forgive him? Seven times?" "No," Jesus answered, "Seventy times seven!"

Does God say one thing and do another? Is God so inconsistent?

EVERYONE IS SAVED.

- 1 Timothy 2:3-5 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God, our Giver of life, who desires all people to have life and to turn to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and one mediator between God and humanity, the Son of Man, Jesus Christ.
- 1 Timothy 4:10 The living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe in him.
- 2 Peter 3:9 The LORD does not delay his promises, as some perceive them, but is very patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish but everyone to come to repentance.

EVERYONE WILL BE REWARDED ACCORDING TO THEIR WORKS.

- Revelation 22:12 Behold, I am coming quickly, and my reward is with me, to give to everyone according to their works.
- Matthew 16:27 When the Son of Man comes in his angels, clothed in the glory of his Father, he will reward everyone according to their works.
- Revelation 19:8 And it was granted to her to be clothed in fine linen, bright and clean, for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints.
- 2 Corinthians 5:10 For we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive in his body what he has done, whether good or bad.
- Micah 7:18 Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his inheritance, and retaineth not his anger forever, but delighteth in mercy?

EVERY KNEE SHALL BOW.

- Philippians 2:10-11 that at the name of Jesus every knee, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, will bow, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is the LORD, to the glory of God the Father.
- Romans 14:11 As it is written: "As I live," declares the LORD, "every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to me."

Do you see the difference between Christian teachings and biblical teachings? Christians, or rather, Christian teachers—preachers—teach that there is an unforgiving God, because you MUST believe in Jesus to be saved, while biblical teachings clearly state that everyone will be saved.

So, again, the question: why are the fallen angels cast INTO the earth?
Why they are cast into the innermost parts of the earth.

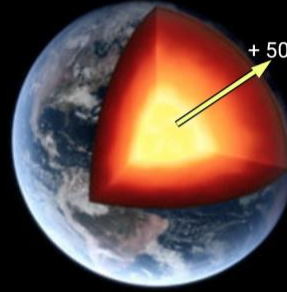

THE FALLEN ANGELS WERE SPLIT INTO MANY ATOMS ON THE EARTH.

Atom

Every organism
dies or wears out,
an atom does not.

Earth

organism = a cluster of atoms in: a rock, plant, bacterium, insect, fish, bird, reptile, animal, or human.

Scientists: The Earth is 4.5 billion years old.
Theologians: The Earth is 6,000 to 10,000 years old.
Scriptures: The Earth is 269,502,025 years old.

Scientists' reasoning:

The high temperature inside the Earth is primarily caused by two processes: the residual heat from Earth's formation—the fallen angels cast into the Earth—and the heat produced by the decay of radioactive elements in the Earth's crust. The pressure in the Earth's core also contributes to the extreme temperatures and ensures that the core is made of iron.

Note: Science has explored the Earth's core mainly by indirect methods, since direct access is impossible (the deepest drilling only reaches about 12 kilometers, while the core begins at a depth of 2,900 kilometers). Has something been invented?

- Residual heat from Earth's formation: When Earth formed about 4.5 billion (according to scientists) years ago, dust and gas clumped together to form a hot planet.
- Heavier elements, such as iron and nickel, sank to the center of the Earth, creating enormous heat.

Some of this original heat is still present in the Earth's core. Decay of radioactive elements: The Earth's crust contains elements such as uranium, thorium and potassium that slowly decay radioactively.

- This decay continuously releases radiation and heat, which warms the Earth.
- This is the main source of geothermal energy. Pressure and temperature in the Earth's core The enormous pressure in the Earth's core, approximately 3.5 million atmospheres, raises the melting point of iron to over 6000°C.
- This explains why the core has an enormous temperature, even with the immense pressure.

The core consists of iron and nickel because these elements are the heaviest and sank to the center during the Earth's formation.

On the next page, the scientific theory of evolution is explained biblically.

FROM ATOMS, THROUGH STONES, ULTIMATELY A HUMAN BEING.

At temperatures above 800°C, almost all rocks melt. At temperatures above 1200°C, all rocks melt. The Earth's innermost layer reaches temperatures of over 5000°C, and 90% of all sulfur on Earth is found in this furnace. It is literally and figuratively a Lake of Fire and Brimstone.

Everything within these temperatures is reduced to its smallest component: atoms, but life is preserved. Something that moves: lives!

It has since been demonstrated that the fallen angels were cast INTO the Earth, so they were literally thrown into the Lake of Fire and Brimstone. We can also express it another way: all these "gods" are buried within the Earth's matter.

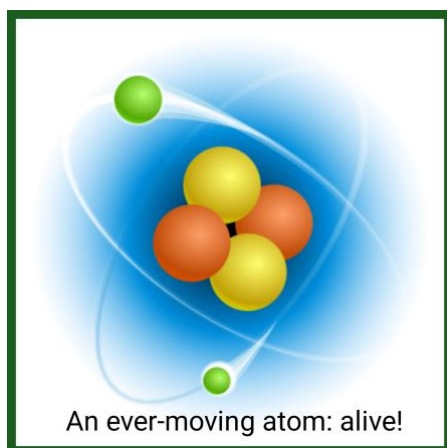

Dead meat with moving atoms?

All atoms, in both living and inanimate matter, are in constant motion. The motion only stops at absolute zero (-273.15°C), a temperature that doesn't occur in nature. As soon as the temperature rises, the atom begins to move again. What changes is how the atoms organize themselves and how they behave in complex structures like cells and molecules.

Here's what happens:

- Atomic motion and temperature. The vibration of atoms is directly linked to temperature. As soon as a warm-blooded animal dies, its atoms continue to vibrate in the same way for the first few hours. Only when the body cools down to the ambient temperature does the speed of atomic vibrations decrease.
- Cell activity stops, atoms continue to move. The death of an organism is the moment when the complex biological processes within the cells cease to function. The cells themselves die, and molecules begin to break down. However, the atoms that make up these molecules do not stop moving. They continue to vibrate and move, but are no longer part of the organized, biological processes that make life possible.
- Decompositions and recombination. After death, the structure of the meat breaks down through putrefaction (decomposition). Bacteria and enzymes contribute to the breakdown of complex molecules. This means that atoms and molecules that were previously part of the meat form new bonds, but the atoms themselves remain in motion.

THE NEW CONNECTIONS.

Atoms form bonds in many different life forms in:

1. The Stone World
2. The Plant World
3. The Animal World
4. The Human Life Form

This is incarnation and reincarnation in all kinds of life forms.

This process of incarnation and reincarnation is an unending cycle spanning many centuries. The possibility of incarnating in human form only began with the Fall of Adam and Eve: 5,920 years ago.

The reincarnation process has been explained scientifically and physically.

DISSOLUTION AND NEW CONNECTIONS.

When an 80-kilogram organism dies, theoretically about 80 kilograms of atoms remain, since atoms don't disappear, but merely change shape or chemical bond. However, the mass in the form of organic material will slowly decrease through decomposition—decomposition/evaporation.

After a long period of burial (10 years or more), it is estimated that only 5% or less of the original organic material remains in the form of bones. Cremation results in a much smaller ash weight, often between 1.5 and 3.5 kilograms for an adult.

After Death and Decomposition:

- Body washing and cremation: The body's mass will change during the natural decomposition process. The body consists largely of water, which evaporates and is absorbed by nature.
- Loss of organic matter: Bacteria in the body break down organic matter, meaning that a significant amount of mass is lost over time.
- Result: Ultimately, only bone and minerals will remain (approximately 5% of the original weight), which represents a significant reduction in mass. Cremation accelerates the decomposition process, leaving atoms as ash.

Solids consist of atoms that occupy a fixed position and only vibrate, while water molecules can exist in a solid, liquid, or gaseous state. The difference lies in the structure and bonding of the particles: in a solid, the atoms/molecules have a rigid structure, while water molecules in different phases have varying degrees of freedom of movement. An 80 kg organism is and remains 80 kg of atoms.

All atoms are reabsorbed into new organisms. These new organisms, in turn, form stones, bacteria, plants, fish, birds, reptiles, mammals, and humans. This process is the one Jesus referred to when He told the Pharisees and scribes: "From these stones, God can make humans."

The reuse – the making of new connections – of atoms in all kinds of different life forms =
Incarnation & Reincarnation!

Reincarnation will take place until the ages of ages, but the last 5920 years have been a one-time incarnation in a human being.

human → realm of the dead

From atom to stone, bacteria, insect, plant, fish, bird, reptile, animal, and back to atom again and again, incessantly: reincarnation. The final reincarnation is the incarnation in a human being in an era; the incarnation in a human being is unique in an era.

The Bible and related scriptures have been repeatedly modified by humans, but science clearly tells the story of incarnation and reincarnation. A process that has been in operation since the beginning of creation.

The beginning of creation is the moment the fallen angels were cast INTO the earth.

AGE PERIODS: THE 1ST, THE 2ND AND THE 3RD DEATH.

Note. NAB: Naarden Bible. KBS: Catholic Bible. This chapter begins by correcting translation and interpretation errors in Dutch Bibles. The Bible speaks of the second death that will take place in the lake of fire and brimstone.

The Greek word "aionion," usually translated as "eternal," doesn't necessarily mean "everlasting." It refers specifically to an "age" or an "aeon," a specific period of time.

Revelation 20:10 KJV And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night ~~for ever and ever.~~

Revelation 20:10 NAB and they shall be tormented day and night unto the ages of ages.

Revelation 20:10 KBS And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are: and they shall be tormented day and night: forever and ever, unto the ages of ages.

Just think about the time of hell—not infinite, but what then?
Until the ages of ages—that's a long time, not endless, and not even fast.
That's the original translation in the Bible, Greek or Hebrew.
Many translations come from the present, the past, perhaps even the Middle Ages.

In Dutch, these couplets rhyme.
Unfortunately, they don't in English.

You have the free will to believe the false prophets; Christians do.
If, despite this, you silently uphold His name, God will give you a kiss.
God is not childish; His love is limitless, and so is His grace.
He even overlooks unintentional and misguided evil.

False prophets and government leaders return to the unquenchable fire.
All the proud go with them, also for a long time.
Not indefinitely, but for a time until the ages of ages.
Evangelizing is for scavengers, like magpies and starlings.

Revelation 21:8 KJV But the cowardly, unbelieving, the abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars will have their part in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

THE LAKE OF FIRE AND BURSTBRIDGE.

The Bible is a difficult book for many to understand, because depending on the translation, there are also different wordings for the lake of fire and brimstone. In the following text, I combine two translations.

Isaiah Isaiah HTB Isaiah 24:22 NBG51 On that day the Lord will punish the fallen angels in heaven, as well as the proud rulers of the nations on earth. And they shall be gathered as prisoners are gathered into a pit, and they shall be shut up in the dungeon, and after many days they shall be visited.

Isaiah speaks here of the lake of fire and brimstone located in the core of our planet Earth. The fallen angels refer to all those mentioned in Revelation 21:8; we can also include the text from Zephaniah 1:2-6 in this group, see below. Isaiah speaks here of the current age, but also of the next age: the New Earth. "After many days" again refers to many millions of years.

THE FIRST DEATH

The first death was the moment God cast the fallen angels INTO the earth. The first death does not refer to natural death, but exclusively to spiritual death, the moment the "gods" were pulverized into living atoms.

This was the beginning of the creation of the earth. Over many centuries, the atoms developed into all sorts of different organisms. We can see the full biblical development here in Genesis. Magma became lava, lava formed stones, stones corroded and formed sand, which is the basic form from which all organisms originated. Every organism dies, but the atoms—the tiny particles of the fallen angels—never die. These atoms formed new organisms. A stone is also an organism: a clump of atoms.

THE SECOND DEATH

The second death is for everyone who remains proud in this first, present age. James 4:6 Therefore it is written, "God opposes the proud, but shows favor to the humble." Revelation 2:4-5 EBV24 But I have this against you, because you have left your first love. Remember where you came from, and repent and do the first works. Otherwise, I will turn against you and take away your lampstand unless you repent.

Leaving your first love was the moment the fallen angels continued to follow Satan. Many follow Satan to this day.

The second death is like the first death in the lake of fire and brimstone, where the temperature will be far above 3000°C. The souls will then be split again into countless tiny particles: atoms. The New Earth is the place where these souls must once again ascend, in a multi-century situation, from fire, to stone, to bacteria, to plant, to insect, to fish, to bird, to reptile, to mammal. Then, at the end of the era "the New Earth," humanity will multiply again and will once again be able to freely choose between two paths: arrogance or humility.

For many, the second era, just as in the first era, will be an era of redemption, a time when they may return to the Kingdom of Heaven. The condition is and remains that one freely chooses humility, for a conscious "turning away from Him" then also requires a "conscious turning to Him" in order to re-enter that original relationship with God.

THE THIRD DEATH

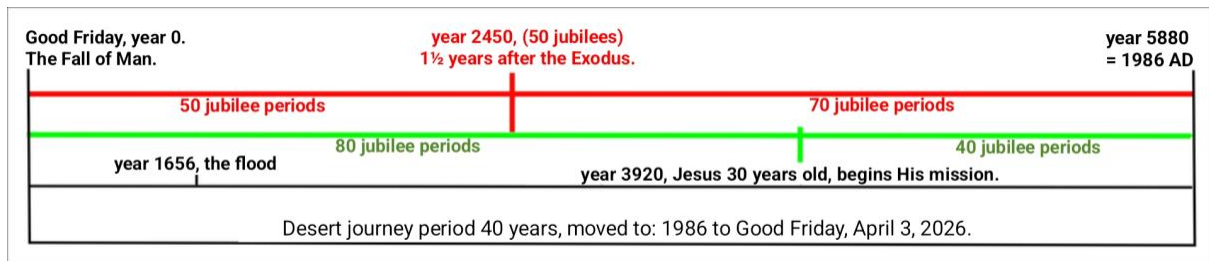

Spiritual death is being buried in earthly matter and being split into atoms. By clumping together these atoms, organisms are created. This also happens in the third age. One comes from the grave to life: thus, one comes again to the light of life, the lampstand gives light.

Job 33:28-30 God has redeemed my soul from the grave; my life looks around in the light. See, all these things God does with a man two or three times to bring his soul back from the grave, to shine upon him with the light of life.

Hosea 6:1-2 Come, let us return to the Lord, for he has torn, but he will heal us; he has struck, but he will bind us up. After two days he will revive us; on the third day he will raise us up. Then we will live in His sight.'

Luke 9:22 He said, 'The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and be killed, and on the third day he will be raised from the dead.'

These three texts all testify to the third age. Jesus rose on the third day; this is the symbolism for the three ages. After this, death is conquered: Corinthians 15:26.

A TIMELINE, 5920 YEARS, UNTIL GOOD FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 2026.

MEANING OF SINGLE NUMBERS; IN THE PLURAL THE MEANING REMAINS THE SAME.

- 3 – Divine fullness, perfection
- 4 – Creation, completion, and order.
- 5 – Grace, favor
- 7 – Fullness, spiritual perfection
- 8 – New beginning
- 10 – Divine government; law
- 12 – Divine authority; perfect government.

This timeline is not constructed genealogically, but based on jubilee periods + the 40-year desert trek.

Coincidence doesn't exist with God: the Exodus began with the slaughter of the Passover lamb on a Friday, the exact same day we celebrate Good Friday. Jesus died on Good Friday. Because of these events, it is very plausible that the Fall of Adam and Eve also occurred on "Good Friday," and that the beginning of the end will also begin on Good Friday. However, the period is the same as "Biblical chronology." $120 \text{ Jubilee periods} \times 49 = 5880 + 40 \text{ (desert period)} = 5920 \text{ years}$.

The Bible has been tampered with quite a bit, but besides that tampering, it also contains a lot of symbolism. Symbolism is often misunderstood, and today's scribes invent all sorts of "strange" things because of this, as foretold in 2 Timothy 4:3. For the time will come when people will no longer listen to sound doctrine, but will seek out for themselves many teachers to tickle their ears.

I don't know of any religions or denominations that 100% align with the Bible, and then you have to ask yourself: which Bible? Countless teachers: thousands of different teachers, sometimes even within each religion, as with Christians, all with a different story, thus lies.

Three texts speak of years, but instead of years, I use Jubilee periods. A Jubilee is a period of 7×7 years; see page 8 again for an explanation. If we replace years with Jubilee periods in the following three texts, the timeline above appears.

Daniel 9:2 In the first year of his reign, it became clear to me, Daniel, from the books that the number of years the word of the LORD had spoken to Jeremiah the prophet, concerning the fulfillment of the time for the ruins of Jerusalem, was seventy years.

Jeremiah 25:10-14 Israel and its neighbors will be subject to the king of Babylon (synonym for Satan) for seventy years. Then, when the seventy years of slavery are completed, I will punish the king of Babylon and his people for their sins.

Genesis 6:3 EBV24 And the LORD said, My spirit shall not abide in man forever; for because of his iniquity he is flesh; his days shall be a hundred and twenty years.

Regarding Genesis 6:3: deliberately use the text from the EBV24. This text clearly states that humans, the fallen angels, became flesh because of their errors. Except for Moses, we nowhere read that humans lived to be 120 years old. Abraham lived to be 175, Isaac to be 180, Jacob to be 147, and during the wilderness wanderings, humans lived to be 70 years old, and the strong to be 80 (Genesis 90:10). Due to medical intervention, humans sometimes live a little longer these days, but 100 years is exceptional. Therefore, the period of 120 years has a different meaning; it represents 120 jubilee periods.

The 70 years mentioned in Daniel and Jeremiah are real, but also symbolic. The period of the wilderness wanderings is extra; this period of 40 normal years must be added to it.

This is a certainty for me, but of course, you are entitled to a different opinion. After all, everyone has free will and the ability to think and be able to make their own choices.

TIME-RELATED

Matthew 24:36 But no one knows that day or hour, not even the angels of heaven, but the Father only.

Acts 1:6-7 When they had gathered together, they asked him, "Our Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" He said to them, "It is not for you to know the time or the times which the Father has set in his power.

Amos 3:7 For the Lord God will do nothing, but he reveals his secret to his servants the prophets.

Time-related means that these texts are specifically intended for a specific period. The text from Amos is not time-based, but applies to all times, even to all eras. However, God's servants are not recognized by humanity as time-based. The aforementioned texts, Revelation 21:8 and Zephaniah 1:2-6, are also time-based, but for this time: the end times (almost).

Revelation 21:8 But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars will have their part in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.

Zephaniah 1:2-6 "Behold, I will utterly wipe out everything from the face of the earth," declares the LORD. "I will wipe out man and beast, I will wipe out the birds of the air, the fish of the sea, the stumbling blocks laid, and the evildoers with them; I will cut off man from the face of the earth," declares the LORD. "And I will stretch out my hand against Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the idolatrous priests with the priests, (1) those who kneel upon the housetops, (2) to the host of heaven, and those who kneel and swear by the LORD and by Malcam, (3) those who turn away from following the LORD, (4) and do not seek the LORD, (5) nor inquire of him.

1. Idolaters with priests: including Catholics.
2. Preachers bowing down on the roofs, regardless of religion. Praying very openly: Matthew 6:5-10.
3. Christians who evangelize loudly, thus preaching their own fabrications – Matthew 7:21-23.
4. Those who no longer want to believe.
5. Those who reject God in pride.

TIME-RELATED: Satan sits in God's seat in ALL churches for 2,300 days – Daniel 8:13-14.

2 Thessalonians 2:4 He opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshipped, so that he sits in God's temple, showing himself that he is God.

WHEN PEOPLE DIE: THE REALM OF THE DEAD.

The realm of the dead is an extremely difficult concept for many, so difficult that it has been completely removed from many Bibles, such as in the Dutch HSV (Revised State Translation). Because the Bible is incomplete and manipulated, we must turn to the apocryphal writings. We use two apocryphal writings to discuss the realm of the dead. The realm of the dead is not specifically mentioned in them, so you must read between the lines, just as with the Bible. These writings are:

1. The Bible
2. Book of Enoch
3. Revelation of Paul

The Revelation of Paul is written out in full in Dutch on my website, but can be downloaded in Dutch and English.

The Revelation of Paul is a 22-page epistle, so it's too extensive to simply include here. The document is available HERE on my website. The Bible refers to the Revelation of Paul, indirectly, of course, through 2 Corinthians 12:1-5. Paul describes what happens in the realm of the dead. He talks about three places, and he also briefly mentions a waiting room.

Despite the Book of Enoch's many pages, the realm of the dead is only mentioned in a few passages. These passages can be found here.

Book of Enoch, section 8.

22:8 Then I asked about him, and about the judgment on them all, and I said, "Why is one separated from the other?"
22:9 And he answered me and said to me, "These three places were made in this way, that they might separate the spirits in death. (Place 1.) And the souls of the righteous are separated in this way; this is the spring of water, and above it the light.

22:10 (Place 2.) Also, a place has been created for sinners, when they die and are buried in the earth, and judgment has not yet come upon them during their lifetime.

22:11 But here their souls are separated from this great torment, until the Great Day of Judgment with punishment and torment for those who are cursed forever, and vengeance on their souls. And there He will bind them forever. Truly, He is from the beginning of the world.

22:12 (Waiting Room) And there is a place set apart for the souls of those who complain and give information about their destruction, about when they were killed, in the days of the sinners.

22:13 (Place 3) Therefore, a place has been prepared for the souls of those who are not righteous, but sinners, who have fulfilled their wrongdoing, and with the unrighteous they will share their fate. But their souls will not be killed on the Day of Judgment, nor will they ascend from here."

Verse 22:13 – Place 3 – states that the souls will not be killed nor will they ascend from here, so they remain bound to/in earthly matter. These souls that will not ascend are reduced to atomic size again and must once again travel the centuries-long path of incarnation after incarnation in all kinds of life forms until, after a period that will last for eons, they may once again become mortal humans as a final incarnation.

Verses 22:10 and 22:11 – Place 2 – also speak of sinners, sinners who have not yet been condemned. Jesus says: In my Father's house are many mansions. These mansions come in many degrees. There are also mansions here as a follow-up process to educate people in the doctrine of love.

The Bible also speaks of place 2: a place where many will be "purified" by fire.

1 Corinthians 3:12-15 Now whether anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw, each one's work will be made manifest, for the Day will reveal it. For the fire will reveal what each one's work is, and the fire will reveal the difference. If the work which anyone has built on it endures, he will receive a reward; and if anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss, but he himself will escape, as through fire.

God is the ultimate Love, but He is very just, and He certainly will not be mocked. Many of the homes in the aftermath are also prisons. In these "homes," situations will constantly arise that require the prisoners to practice love. They are supported in this by "volunteers" who provide assistance. These volunteers are not recognized as guards or nurses; therefore, it is as if there is no guidance, and the prisoners demonstrate love from within themselves. In this way, the divine law of love is learned. This training process also lasts for centuries, but not for ever and ever.

Verse 22:9 – Place 1 – speaks of the righteous. These are people who lived their mortal lives in humility. They loved their neighbor, and they loved God quietly, often unnoticed. These are the people who were oppressed by the proud or even lived their lives in abject poverty.

Verse 22:12 – The Waiting Room – this text concerns the people who were murdered. There will be a confrontation in order to be able to convict the murderer in a just manner. Following this conviction, the murderer will be assigned a place. Many of these murderers are thrown back into earthly matter to once again take the extremely long path of incarnation and reincarnation in order to be allowed to incarnate again as a mortal human being after millions of centuries.

In the second era—the New Earth—people will once again have the opportunity to freely choose the path of humility or arrogance. During the third era, everyone will walk their path in utmost humility. The parable of the prodigal son is about Satan; he is one of those who may only return to the Father through humility in the third era.

When a person dies, the mortal body decays, and the atoms are indeed reabsorbed into earthly matter, but I highly doubt whether the atoms of the mortal human being are also reabsorbed into another organism. As soon as a mortal human being comes into being, all the atoms that originally belonged to that person are reassembled. These atoms must be available again when the resurrection from the dead is realized. These collected atoms will be spiritualized into a heavenly organism for ascension. Those who will not ascend will be split back into all sorts of separate atoms within earthly matter.

The end times have three groups corresponding to the three places in the realm of the dead. Revelation 6 speaks of the opening of seals: the fourth seal, the sixth seal, and the seventh seal. The fifth seal is the resurrection of the dead.

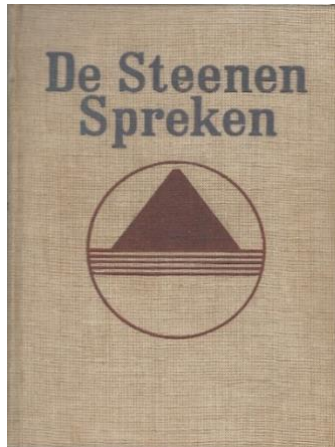

Seal 4: The righteous will be killed, but whoever loses their life will save their life. This concerns 25% (one-quarter) of the world's population. Both Revelation 6:7-8 and Numbers 23:10 speak of this one-quarter. This one-quarter will be taken to the realm of the dead (Isaiah 57:1-2, the sleeping places).

Seal 6: A third of the remaining 75% will die by natural disasters—the four trumpets—this refers to the humble, unbelieving ones; nevertheless, they cry out to God in their dying anguish, and God will hear them. These will first be taken into the fire to be purified, according to 1 Corinthians 3:12-15.

Seal 7: The world's population has been halved. The time of tribulation begins—the three trumpets of woe. A period of 1260 days is shortened because a select few must be able to recount everything they experienced during the millennial kingdom.

The few select few who remain alive, the rapture into the air: 1 Thessalonians 4:15-17.

Ezekiel 12:16 NIV 21 I will spare a few, and they will escape the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, for they will declare all their abominations to the nations where they go during the millennial kingdom. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

FINALLY.

I was about 22 years old (1978) when I read the book "The Stones Speak." It was about the pyramids and the inscriptions, a book that was more mathematics than just reading material.

A book that far exceeded my "learning capacity," but one sentence has always stuck with me: The last full year would be 2025.

I did a lot of research, and despite being a simple person, I immersed myself in the Bible, the apocryphal writings, and even science. When I got married, I had only one qualification: a driver's license, not even a swimming certificate.

Later, I finally earned my MAVO4 diploma, a two-year written exam.

Immersing myself in the scriptures has ultimately led me to no longer believe any preacher; they all lie. So, logically, I'm no longer registered with any religion or denomination. Every preacher is a false prophet.

By now, you've read this booklet, and you can draw your own conclusions, just as I do.

With the two timelines I've created—no preacher has achieved this despite their university degrees—and with everything I've further researched, my conclusion is that 2 Thessalonians 2:3-4 has been fulfilled for several years and that the 2300-day period from Daniel 8:14 began on December 16, 2016, with the registration of Covid-19. It's no coincidence that this period is exactly 2300 days. These 2300 days also end on April 3, 2026.

2 Thessalonians 2:3-4 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come first, and that man of sin be revealed first, the son of perdition; who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

As I said: I don't believe any preacher anymore; they all lie, which is exactly what this text is trying to say. Every religion, denomination, or preacher tells a different story. So, they are lies.

Daniel 8:13-14 Then I heard one holy man speaking; and another holy man said to him who spoke, "How long shall the vision be, the daily sacrifice, and the great transgression, the forsaking of the sanctuary, and the trampling of the host under foot?" And he said to me, "Even two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary shall be cleansed."

The restoration of the sanctuary (the earth) will take place after the 2300 days, not during these 2300 days.

THE PURPOSE OF THE CREATION OF THE EARTH.

Every fallen angel will be saved by dying as a human being, for in the character of mortal man, the man—the fallen angel—will learn to walk with God in humility.

In short: humanity is made up of fallen angels.

The "material" of which the earth is composed: the fallen angels broken down into atoms.
